THE INVINCIBLES ARE AT LAST CONQUERED

Marion Defeats Morganfield In Two Great Games—Gossage and Runyan Stars—Marions are Champions of Western Kentucky.

MARION AND EVANSVILLE WILL PLAY SEPTEMBER NINTH.

So fallen, so lost, the light withdrawn
Which once he wore,
The glory from his gray hairs gone,
Forevermore.

Reck him not—the tempter hath
A snare for all;
And pitying tears, not seen and writh,
Betray his fall.

Let not the land, once proud of him,
Rejoice him now,
Nor brand with lower shame his tim Disheveled brow.

But let its hounded sons, instead,
From sea to lake,
A long lament, as for the dead,
In sadness make.

Then pass the reverence of old days
To his dead name;
Walk backward with averted gaze,
And hide the shame.

How did the great Whittier lament
The fall of Daniel Webster some sixty years ago, and today that same sorrow ing cry is heard from our broken hearted neighbor, the metropolis of Union coun ty. Sad indeed, is the green of the gambler when all is lost, sadder still is the green of the husband, when mother in-law comes for her annual visit, but sadder than either, sadder of all, is the powerful and of melancholy Morgan field.

And well may they mourn, for not only did he defeat us, but he has been beaten upon them. It is hard for a town to see her much vaunted heroes go down in defeat twice in succession, it is hard to see them play eighteen innings with only one run scored and four question able hits. It is painful to see the great Keeler outplayed and outpitched by a factor ten from Marion. It is heart rending to see "Butch" the "Butch" who won sixteen straight games, the "Butch" who defeated Madisonville, pummeled all over the lot for nine never-ending in nings, and hammered for singles, two batters, and three batters in mountainous succession; and even all this might be endured, but when Taylor, captain, man ager, coach and chief kicker (Warner excepted), the greatest first baseman in the State, the walking encyclopedia of baseball lore, when Taylor lets a thrown ball slip through his fingers while a runner comes from second to the plate,
with the winning run of the game, then it is that the climax of sadness and dis grace is reached and Morganfield with draws her name from the baseball world.

The first game played between the two teams Wednesday, August 19th, was the swiftest and hardest fought contest ever seen in Marion. It was a pitchers' battle

Gossage After The Game.

harded with the most tremendous fusil
ade ever turned loose in Marion.

Captain Taylor dreaded the fire, and with a sore hand as an excuse, he wisely refrained from offering himself as a sac rifice to the youths who still sought re venge. Vally Durick, of Dekoven, was persuaded to take his place, a step he will always regret.

Runyan was on the slab for the home team, and remembering his previous treatment at the hands of Morganfield,
he pitched his best game. Like Gossage, on the day before, he allowed only two hits; like Gossage, he struck out twelve men, and like Gossage, he gained the ad miration and applause of every baseball fan in Marion. We are indebted to you, Pat Runyan, for one of the nicest pitched games we have ever seen, and all the praise we can bestow will not relieve the debt.

But behind Runyan was a team which our good friend Pettit says can defeat
"any of 'em," and we sincerely believe his statement to be true. The infield worked like a well regulated machine,
and Mitchell especially did brilliant work. In the outfield, Conley and Roch ester made some sensational catches, and Berrymann failed to do so only because he didn't get a chance. Stevens, who caught, owing to Grimes' injury, put up his usual good game.

For four innings Morganfield fought deperately, and although they were evi dently outclassed and easily being de feated, the crowd showed its admiration for their pluck. But after the fourth, when they too, realized that they were badly whipped, they pretended to lay down, and their miserable efforts to ap pear unconcerned, their foolish attempts to act as if they didn't care, and their weak endeavors to show that they were "giving away" the game, were extremely tiresome and reminded one forcibly of Burns' famous prayer.

Warner's Characteristic Stunt
Reeling at the Umpire.

Why would some power the griffin give us
To see ourselves as other see us.

The Marion team, away back in the instant past, has been defeated, and de feated badly, but never yet have they walked off a diamond humbled as quit ters.

The feature of the game, outside of Runyan's great work, was Land's bat ting. Out of five times up he made three singles and a two-bagger, scoring three runs himself and driving in several oth ers.

Morganfield got only one man past
first base. In the ninth, with two down, Keeler made a three-bagger. Then Tay lor, in a desperate effort to prevent a shut-out, came to bat in the place of Warner, the strike-out trend. He hit a hard lick to center field, but Conley, ready and anxious, gathered it in and the game was over.

Then they went home. Sadly, slowly, disconsolately they wended their weary

Taylor Tries to Prevent a Shut Out in The Ninth.

way to the station, and the joyous yells
of our delighted fans fell on their droop ing spirits like the tolling of a funeral
bell. "Go Tell Bob Taylor the Old Gray Hound Is Dead" was the title of the mel ancholy hymn of farewell. And when they boarded the train that was to carry them back to the city, when it whirled them away from our scenes of pastoral content, the rhythm of the rail, which had seemed so happy on the short jour ney the day before, beat on their ears
like a dirge.

TRIGG COUNTY'S REQUEST.

Turned Down Very Cold.—Governor
Willson Fires Back Some Hot Shot.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 22.—Gov ernor Willson today made public the text of a scathing reply to a letter and resolutions which has been for warded him by the county officials of Trigg county, stating that the pre sence of troops was not desired in that county and intimating that the soldiers had committed acts of law lessness. Trigg county, which is in the dark tobacco district, near the Tennessee line, has been the scene of an unusually large number of night
rider depredation.

Governor Willson before proceed
ing to reply quotes in full the letter and the resolutions, which are dated August 18, and forwarded from Can diz Ky., and written on the letter heads of the Planters Protective as sociation, the organization of the dark tobacco growers. The signa tures are led off with the names of County Judge G. B. Bigham and Sheriff W. C. Broadbent, of Trigg county. The letter and resolutions recite that at a mass meeting attend ed by 500 citizens of Trigg county, those present pledged themselves to make every effort to restore order and peace. Among other statements the resolutions contain the following:

"Without reciting the various acts of violence and without touching on any acts of lawlessness on the part of the soldiers, we desire to assure your excellency that we can do all or more than the soldiers can."

The resolutions state that the pre sence of the soldiers is a hindrance to the execution of justice by the civil tribunals and declare that their with drawal would be in the interests of law and order.

In his reply Governor Willson com
mends the spirit shown by the mass meeting and expresses his belief that those present can restore order in Trigg county if they will do all they can to live up to their pledge. If such a pledge had been taken at the outset of the depredations, 18 months ago,
and carried out there would now be no need of soldiers in the county.

"But," says the Governor, "dur ing that 18 months hundreds of peo ple have been intimidated by a secret bound league and a long list of crimes recorded. And during all this time not one of you who offer this pledge has caused the arrest of anybody, al though many of the crimes were so open and shameless that many of you who sign these resolutions not only knew of the outrages, but knew where officers could have laid their hands on the perpetrators. You have not made a single affidavit, caused a sin gle arrest or even asked for a war rant. The people of your county were made to feel that they could not rely for help on either yourselves or the peace officers. And while you did nothing yourselves, you never asked aid of the state government,
but showed hostility to the state gov ernment's measures to protect life and property."

In conclusion the Governor takes a parting shot at the signers of the res olutions for engrossing them on the stationary of the Planters' Protective association—a name which he says recalls the raid on Princeton, Hop kinsville and a number of other places.
On the ground that the lives of a few brave men, who have attempted to prosecute the night riders and who have asked for protection would be endangered and their property put to further risk of destruction, he refuses to withdraw the troops. Such a step he says, would remove what little protection has of late been afforded and leave the district at the mercy of the riders.

VISITS MARION

Nonagenrian who Cleared the Tim ber from Town Site Makes Visit Here—First in 56 Years.

John L. Tolley aged ninety-one,
a former citizen of Marion, was here
last week the guest of his nephew, Jas. Tolley, it being his first visit in fifty-six years, he having left here in 1852, ten years before the civil war broke out. Mr. Tolley is an in teresting old gentleman to meet and has a bright mind notwithstanding his age. He was born at Eddyville on March 19th, 1817, and came to Marion when the town plat was being cleared off to locate the county-seat.
He and his uncle cut the trees which stood as a dense forest where Marion now stands. He witnessed a hang ing here over half a century ago,
when a man was executed for killing
his wife and two children.

Mr. Tolley's wife was a Miss Johnson. She died five years ago at Macedonia, Ill., where they have been living.

Mr. Tolley expects to visit his nephew, C. H. Hill, at Dycusburg, next week before departing for his new home with his son-in-law J. W.
Sutton at Sebrree, Kentucky.

Bertha Rushing

Was born October 1st, 1896 and died August 10th, 1908, age 12 years, 10 months and 9 days. She passed peacefully away, surrounded by re latives and friends. Appropriate services were conducted by Rev. J.
B. McNeely at the cemetery and a large concourse of people were pre sent to pay the last sad tribute of respect. She will be missed greatly by loved ones at home and also her little school mates who hated so bad to give her up, but weep not for she is at rest. She stated to her grand ma and her father the morning she died that she had met with a change
and that she was not afraid to die.
Bertha cannot come to us but we can go to her.

The Ohio River Association.

This large body of Baptists met with Hampton church, Aug. 19, 20 and 21 in one of its most interesting sessions. Almost all of the churches were represented by letters and mes sengers. The introductory sermon was great, the congregations large.
The officers of last year were re-elec ted. The reports show a prosperous year among the churches along the lines of missions and benevolences.

Among the visitors from other associations who greatly added to the interest of the meeting with their preaching and addresses we mention:
Elds. J. T. Green, Carbondale, Ill.;
D. M. Green, Calvert City, Ky.; M.
E. Miller, Kuttawa, Ky.; J. C. Mid
gett, Scargis, Ky.; Mr. Bennett Utica, Ky.; and H. B. Taylor, Mur ray, Ky. We also mention Elders
J. W. Vaughn and W. C. Pierce, who have just become members with us.

Resolutions were passed petition
ing our next legislature to enact laws against Sunday base ball games and urging the passage of the County
Unit Bill act.

Hampton church and community greatly delighted the messengers and visitors with their royal entertain ment. A new Sabbath school move ment was inaugurated, the first meeting to be held with Marion Bat
tist church, the fifth Sabbath of No vember. All the churches of the Association are asked to send mes sengers. The next session of the Association will be held with Wal nut Grove church, Caldwell County.

ENCOURAGING REPORTS

Rec'd by The Burley Tobacco Growers' Association at Winchester.—Forty Thousand Hogheads of The 1908 Crop Sold, and 1907 Crop Being Prepared.

Winchester, Ky., Aug. 12.—Yesterday's meeting of the District Board of the Burley Tobacco Society, the Secretary reported nearly 40,000 hogheads of the 1907 crop have been sold, leaving about 12,000 hogheads, of that crop unsold. This is all of the higher grades, from 15 cent up.

The 1907 crop is not in the hoghead yet, but it is being rapidly packed. This crop is estimated at about 90,000 hogheads, 85 per cent. of which is in the pool. The remaining 15 per cent. has been sold by the growers who did not pool. The crop of 1907 is being rapidly prepared for the market, and as soon as possible the samples will be sent here to be typed and classified.

The question of fixing a price on the crop of 1907 will be discussed. There is a desire on the part of some to make a decided increase in the price, claiming that the law of supply and demand justifies it. On the other hand, many claim that the Burley Society was organized simply to obtain a living price for the grower and no advantage should be taken of the situation. As the crop is much better than that of the previous year, the average price will be higher, even if graded on the same basis.

The method of financing the crop of 1907 will remain the same as that of 1906. The board of control of each county will have charge of financing the crop of that county. As the time of the year is nearly here when farmers will make contracts for for next year the question of what the society proposes to do will probably be discussed. It is felt that it will hardly be possible to restrict the crop of 1909 and efforts will be directed to controlling the sale of it.

The board will be in session a day or two before finishing their work.

At a night session a resolution was passed refusing to allow those who have raised a crop in 1908 over the protests of the Equity people to pool these crops. The attitude of the Burley Society to the crop of 1909 was discussed at length, but definite action on the matter was postponed until after the election of officers in October.

CROPS TOO BIG.

Tennessee Dark Tobacco Association Will Reduce Acreage Next Year.

Clarksville, Tenn., Aug. 12.—The Dark Tobacco Growers' Association reports show the present crop of tobacco to be in fine condition. Worms have not yet made their appearance, and it is believed that this will be the best crop raised in years. Owing to the large amount of last year's crop of tobacco that remains unsold and the present large crop in the field, it has been decided to reduce the acreage for the next crop.

The dispatch need not create much surprise. And the situation in Kentucky will not be much better next year. It looks now like one-half of last year's crop will be in the hands of the Association when this year's crops is housed. The edict will probably go forth by the end of the year to reduce the acreage in the Dark Tobacco District for 1909, and then we shall see what we shall see. Will they acquit themselves as nobly as did the Green River and Burley growers? We hope so.

DIRE DISTRESS

It Is Near at Hand to Hundreds of Marion Readers.

Don't neglect an aching back. Backache is the kidney's cry for help.

Neglect hurrying to their aid. Means that urinary troubles follow quickly.

Dire distress, diabetes, Bright's disease.

Profit by a Marion citizen's experience.

S. E. Walker, contractor, Marion, Ky., says: "I first began to suffer from kidney complaint after recovery from smallpox. My back ached severely and I was not able to work for three months on this account. The pains seemed to be more severe at night and I would arise in the morning feeling lame and sore and during the day felt tired and languid. I was very nervous, often suffered from headaches and dizzy spells caused me additional misery. There was a heavy sediment in the secretions and they were too frequent in passage, causing me to arise often at night. When ever I took cold it effected my kidneys and at such times the secretions would be very painful in passage. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Haynes & Taylor's drug store gave me a complete cure and I am pleased to state that I have not had any return of the trouble since."

How to Cure Your Piles

Due Often To Carelessness or Neglect and Stubborn to Cure

"The knife is not always necessary to cure even desperate cases of piles," says a physician whose years and experience make him an authority. "Indeed," he says further, "I have known some very aggravated cases of long standing cured by a simple home remedy that restored to the bowels easy natural daily movements."

And the doctor is right, as many letters from cured people in various parts of the country prove. If you suffer from piles, rectal tumors and ulcers would try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin they would often save themselves the terrible pain and danger and the heavy expense of a severe surgical operation. "Piles are often due to constipation and are always aggravated by it. Easy natural movements of the bowels such as are invariably produced by this famous laxative without pain or gripe do much to restore a normal, healthy condition to the bowels and thus cure piles." "H. H. Miller, Moweaqua, Ill., says: 'I have been troubled all my life with piles brought on by constipation. I tried many doctors and numerous remedies, but found no relief until I used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. I have used it as a laxative and stomach remedy for the past nine years and have no more troubles with piles.' H. N. John, Minneapolis, Kan., says he suffered for four years with piles which were so bad that he could not work. Four bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin cured him, and he says he has not been bothered since."

STARR.

[delayed from last week]

We have another fine rain.

Belmont school commenced last Monday.

Rev. C. T. Boucher is in a meeting at New Salem this week.

Our school commenced Monday with James Paris as teacher.

Rev. J. B. McNeely is at Liberty this week helping in a meeting.

Mrs. Alma Brookshire, of Kansas, is visiting relatives in this section.

P. M. Woodsides fell and knocked his hip joint out of place and is in a very critical condition.

Bertha, the little daughter of Ed Rushing, died the 10th, after an illness of only four days. She was about twelve years of age. She was buried at the Rushing grave yard, Rev. J. B. McNeely conducting the funeral services.

The big camp meeting closed last Friday. Rev. J. T. Rushing, of Henderson, was here visiting relatives and friends, and preached a fine sermon Thursday evening. Rev. J. R. King, the pastor, was in charge but Rev. J. M. WyKoff, of Sullivan, Ill., did most of the preaching. There were four or five conversions. The crowd this year was not as large as usual, but Sunday was a pleasant day and no doubt the people enjoyed their outing.

George Vernon and Sherman Turley, of Sikeston, Mo., are visiting friends in this section.

There was a missionary baptism at Walnut Grove and there was a large crowd present.

P. M. Woodsides died Sunday and was buried at Piney Monday. The funeral was preached by Rev. W. T. Kley.

I have a farm for sale, two miles north of Marion on Memphis Mines road, known as the Jon Moore farm, contains 130 acres, good improvements, two dwellings, barn, stable and all necessary out buildings, lies on Crooked Creek and has 80 acres cleared, 50 acres virgin forest.

MRS. MARY MOORE, Marion, Ky.

August time tells on the nerves. That spiritless, no ambition feeling can be easily and quickly altered by taking what is known by druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Within 48 hours after beginning to use the Restorative, improvement will be noticed. Of course, full health will not immediately return. The gain, however, will surely follow. And best of all, you will realize and feel your strength and ambition as it is returning. Outside influences depress first the "inside nerves" then the Stomach, Heart, and Kidneys will usually fail. Strengthen these failing nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how quickly health will be yours again. Sold by Jas. H. Orme.

A VOTE FOR TRUSTS

IS EVERY VOTER CAST FOR THE PROTECTION PRESIDENT.

Higher tariff rates are being offered by the Protection Party in order to protect the protectionist.

Protectionist tariff rates have been imposed upon the American people by a set of political charlatans working under the guise of Republicanism.

There is no true principle or science in protection, but it stands for that internal Republican doctrine that the few shall profit at the expense of the many.

Still, some of the trusts are not satisfied and want higher rates of duty, because some people are so ungrateful that they will buy imported goods.

With such a promise of complete monopoly of the home market, no wonder the trusts' stocks are selling higher in Wall Street.

The price for this tariff protection will be paid by the trusts in campaign contributions.

If the Republicans win at the coming election the trusts will receive their reward in greater protection.

The Republican idea that high prices of manufactured products produce prosperity to anyone except the trusts or manufacturers, is so absurd that it is a wonder that any voter is deceived by it.

Let Mr. Taft and Mr. Bryan both hammer on the tariff issue, and the one who convinces the people most deeply of his sincerity and honesty will be elected president.

IS STRONG APPEAL

BRYAN'S SPEECH MASTERPIECE OF LOGIC.

Fully and Forcefully Democratic Leader Points Out Why His Party Should Be Given Control of Nation's Destinies.

Mr. Bryan carries a big stick, too. But if he speaks softly, he also speaks forcefully and logically. His clear advantage over his Republican opponent was manifested in various ways in his speech of acceptance.

It is, of course, Mr. Bryan's good fortune that his party has no record, and more good fortune that its record that is not perfect is not an embarrassing one.

Specifically Mr. Bryan pointed out that the "known abuses," referred to by Mr. Taft as matters demanding correction, are the creation and product of Republican mismanagement or malicious management.

It is easy enough to pick flaws in the Republican doctrine and find weak points in the party's rusty armor, but it is another thing to ask a trial for a party that has been tried during a period in which there has been a marvelous change in economic conditions.

Protecting the Farmers.

The price of wool has declined to about 15 cents a pound at Kansas City, in spite of the tariff protection of from 10 cents to 33 cents a pound.

Why does not the Protective Tariff League explain how, with such enormous protection, the wool growers are only getting the same price for their wool as the English wool growers.

Tariff Real Issue Before People.

Mr. Bryan should drive home to the people that the tariff is the "mother of trusts," that it is the cause of the tariff trusts, and that it is the cause of the tariff trusts.

There is no use denying that the Bryan program of publicity is better than the one so far outlined by Mr. Taft's managers.

The Tariff as an Issue.

Bring the tariff to the front, Brother Bryan. It is the root of all our troubles, the main cause of the larger half of our woes.

Let Mr. Taft and Mr. Bryan both hammer on the tariff issue, and the one who convinces the people most deeply of his sincerity and honesty will be elected president.

UNITED PARTY BEHIND BRYAN

Presidential Candidate Is Assured of Nearly Support.

For the first time in 12 years, the Democratic party is united in hearty support of its presidential candidate.

Four years ago Mr. Parker had only Bryan's nominal support, and Bryan men did not even make a pretense of supporting him.

But Mr. Parker, and with him probably that wing of the party which heretofore has opposed Bryan, now forgets the past and takes off his coat for the party candidate.

The Harvester Trust.

That bucking a trust is uphill business may be judged from the report in the New York Journal of Commerce that:

"The hemp-growers' combine, formed several months ago to fight the harvester trust, has proven a failure, and the latter is now buying hemp at its own prices."

What is known as the "hemp-growers' combine" does not deal in real hemp or flax, but in such grasses and fibers as are used in the manufacture of binding twine.

Paragraph 566 of the tariff law places all such grasses and fibers on the free list, which shows how other trusts and combines would fare if not protected by the tariff.

It will be interesting to see if the harvester trust having forced the "hemp-growers' combine" to reduce the price of the raw material, will sell twine any cheaper to the wheat growers.

Democrats for Good Roads.

The Democratic party at Denver took the most advanced step yet taken upon the question of good roads, by adopting a strong plank favoring federal and state aid to the farmers, to assist in building permanent highways.

Uncle Sam uses 40 per cent. of all the highways for rural mail delivery, and as good roads, according to the postal authorities, will cheapen the cost of the service 20 per cent., there is good reason why national aid should be extended.

The farmer alone cannot build the roads. They can be built by state aid, and if federal aid were extended also it would be easy.

Tariff the Root of the Evil.

The tariff is the source of most evils of which the American people complain. If the tariff were so adjusted as to protect American workmen only, and not to favor trusts, the cost of living would be greatly reduced.

Hasn't Mr. Roosevelt himself preached that it is only by grim, strenuous courage and painful effort that we move on to better things? A revised tariff would be a better thing.

There is just one element lacking to make Republican publicity effective and that is like other Republican reforms it is postponed until "after election."

Hasn't Mr. Roosevelt himself preached that it is only by grim, strenuous courage and painful effort that we move on to better things?

A PERFECTLY COMMON TIME

monopolies that Republican policies have fostered, and by the force of competition prevent it in the future? There will be little political corruption when special privileges are crushed out.

FIRST OF REFORMS

IS TO DO AWAY WITH INEQUITOUS SPECIAL PRIVILEGES.

Political Corruption Will Cease When Voters Unite to Uphold the Sound Principles of the Democratic Party.

The Republican politicians are evidently quite anxious that tariff reform shall not be a permanent issue in this campaign. Unfortunately there are so many issues that both sides are pressing that the allied issue of the tariff and the protected trusts is liable to be overlooked in a great measure.

If there were no tariff-protected trusts and favored corporations there would be but little corruption at national elections, for it is a fact that but few large contributions to political campaign funds are made unless the contribution is promised some personal advantage or important position.

Men will spend large sums to be elected themselves to office, but are not very free in contributing for the election of others, and the patriots that contribute from real patriotic motives are few and far between.

Corporations, however, are more easily lured by the political collector, as we have seen in the case of the large sums paid for Republican campaign funds by the life insurance managers and what Harbison collected in 1904 from the railroads and other sources at the request of President Roosevelt.

In the letter of Mr. Harbison reciting his services to the Republican party he boasted that the large sum he collected was used to corrupt the voters of the state of New York and did change 50,000 votes.

It is more important to know how the campaign funds are expended than who furnished the money, and even that fact would not expose corruption unless the money was followed to its ultimate destination.

If there were no protected monopolies and corporation managers, who are interested in perpetuating some special privilege or the secretion of their way of plundering the people through connivance with officials, there would be but little political corruption.

It would, therefore, seem that the most important reform is to abolish all special privileges and especially the present tariff protection to the trusts.

It is safe to say that with the tariff reformed to a revenue basis and thus the trusts left helpless to charge more for their products than the mass of the people that only other trusts could buy from them.

SURELY TIME TO REFORM.

Get Down the Amount of Taxes Paid the Tariff-Protected Trusts.

The Republican politicians and the trusts have always, since their unholy partnership began, tried to baffle the tariff issue. It must be said they have succeeded in doing so to a great extent and are still working faithfully for the same end.

There would be but few trusts if they were not protected by the tariff and there would be no Dingley law if the Republican politicians were not resolving directly and indirectly part of the swing. The tariff, therefore, is not for protection to the farmers and workmen, but for the legal plundering of all classes.

The workmen have been deluded into voting the trust ticket, because the trusts have been forced to increase wages to meet the increased cost of living caused by trust high prices.

It is estimated by the most eminent statisticians that the average family pays a tax of nearly $100 a year on account of the tariff law of which about $20 is received by the government and about $80 is received by the trusts in increased profits.

If these two collectors stood at the door of the stores and directly demanded this tax, there would be some grumbling at the government tax collector, but what would be done to the trust collector? There would be a riot.

It is a more diplomatic way, so that you pay your tariff and trust tax in the increased price of what you buy and the storekeeper pays it to the wholesalers and through them the government receives its tax on the imported goods you buy and the trusts receive the lion's share in high prices for their products.

It would certainly seem that the time has arrived for retrenchment and reform. The Republican tariff has become extravagant, to reform it as the Democrats propose will cut down the amount of the tax you pay the government, and if the cut is deep enough will actually obliterate the trusts' tax of what you now plunder you.

The storekeepers will still live and become more prosperous but the trust monopoly will die for lack of special privilege.

Independent Republican voter who wants to see political corruption crushed out, to join with the reform of the tariff, the corn law, and from them they

THE DEMOCRATIC STRADDLE

Radical William is Riding for a Fall.

IS NOT A "NEW ERA"

DEMOCRATIC CLAIM TO REFORM EXPLODED.

By Act of a Republican Congress, Recommended by a Republican President, Corporate Contributions Were Forbidden.

The effort to make a pivotal campaign issue out of campaign contributions goes on miserably. Let us be fair and admit that Mr. Bryan and his running mate seem to be looking ahead by the proposition to exclude all campaign contributions above $10,000 and to publish all between that sum and $100 before election. Yet how easily that extreme provision can be evaded! Suppose that some felt philanthropist wishes to enrich the Bryan campaign fund by $25,000. What is to hinder him from ordering his clerks to send it in five hundred parts with names culled from the school enrollment or the voting lists?

Further the Bryan advance on this point of the game is overshadowed by a slip which that gentleman has made on the subject of campaign contributions by corporations. In his speech to the Nebraska delegation he claimed that the Democratic platform opened "a new era in politics" by declaring against the system of enriching campaign funds from corporation treasuries. Democratic papers are taking up this cry quite widely. An act of congress is more effective in opening a new era than a platform profession, and, therefore, the era must be credited to the act of congress under date of January 26, 1907, making campaign subscriptions by corporations unlawful under penalty of $1,000 fine or a year's imprisonment, or both.

A great many people seem to have forgotten the enactment of this law. Bryan's reported declaration of Mr. Sheldon, the treasurer of the Populist National Committee, that he will ask corporate contributions without concealment, he seems to be among those who failed to keep track of the progress of events. But for Mr. Bryan as a candidate to extend this forgetfulness into his public utterances rises to the degree of a serious blunder in this respect. His declaration of a great reform, the opening of a new era, results in bringing to the public notice that the reform and new era were established nearly a year and a half before the Democratic convention by the act of a Republican congress in accordance with the recommendation of a Republican President.

Why Mr. Taft is Trusted.

Taft is taken to be a man of judicial temper and fier who will prosecute the measures of his party without creating conditions of undue excitement. There is really no necessity to do so, in view of the fact that the era of disavowal of criminal operations in high finance has gone by. The searchlight of publicity has caused the wrongdoers in high places to run to cover. It is only necessary now to bring about a condition of just and satisfactory working of the business wheels. This Mr. Taft can be counted upon to accomplish in perfect accord with the right-thinking element of the industrial world. Therefore, he is trusted and believed in by the men of affairs as well as by the people. This is really the situation in a nutshell.

Line Thinly Drawn.

Mr. Bryan says that the $500 he received from two talking machine corporations was a purely commercial transaction and not a campaign contribution, although he turned the money over to the campaign fund. But where is the line of demarcation between a commercial and a moral transaction in the contribution of campaign funds?

It is asserted of Bryan that he "could stand on the Independence platform with both feet." Certainly, that is an easy matter for him. But what he cannot do is to get the Independence vote which makes the platform wholly useless for his purposes.

Objects to the Kicking.

Mr. Bryan would have less objection to Tom Watson and Eugene Debs running if they would kindly refrain from kicking him on the shins.—Washington Post.

WILL NOT AID DEMOCRATS

Farmers Know Too Well the Squire of Their Prosperity.

In the amateurish play to the galleries that Mr. Bryan and Mr. Kern make in the form of the joint appeal for small contributions, there occurs this paragraph:

"There are hundreds of thousands of farmers who are abundantly able to contribute to the campaign fund. There are thousands who could give $100 apiece without feeling it; there are tens of thousands who could give $50 apiece without sacrifice, and still more who could give $25, or $10, or $5. As the national committee has not yet been organized we will ask the Committee to call for subscriptions to this farmers' fund. The farmers' fund will be turned over to the national committee as soon as its permanent officers have been selected. Who will be the first to respond? How many farmers will join in furnishing the fund necessary to present the issues?"

At a guess we should say very few farmers indeed. There are admittedly "hundreds of thousands of farmers abundantly able to contribute." Indeed, the prosperity of the American farmer can hardly be overstated. But that prosperity will not move him to contribute to help elect Bryan or any other Democratic candidate. For it is the result not only of Nature's bounty but of 12 years of Republican rule, and is the most complete possible refutation of the Democratic claim that the prosperity of the manufacturing industries under the Republican tariff system is gained at the expense of the agricultural industries. The farmer's selfishness, cited by Bryan and Kern as a reason for his contributing to their fund, is therefore the very thing that will most incline him to do the exact opposite. He will contribute not to the Bryan campaign fund, but to the Republican campaign fund, and he will not have to be solicited by Mr. Taft to do it, either.—Pittsburgh Press.

An Independent View.

We do not question Mr. Bryan's sincerity or his devotion to the interests of the people. But we believe that the material welfare of the nation would be safer in the hands of a president of Mr. Taft's temperament and calm judgment, and for this reason we favor his election to the presidency.

These are the conclusions which we have reached after mature consideration and with the sole desire to promote the good of the nation and the welfare of the people. We are aware that they are not in accord with the views of many of our readers. We have entire respect for their sincerity. We recognize their right to follow their own convictions and judgment. Every man is entitled to freedom of political action. Americans generally have the welfare of the nation at heart and though they differ as to the means and methods by which the national welfare can be assured, they differ honestly. We believe the election of Mr. Taft would tend to hasten the restoration of prosperous business conditions. We believe that this administration will be prudent. Therefore we support him from a sense of public duty.—Baltimore Sun.

High Time to Break Away.

It is high time for the southern states to break away from that antiquated absurdity of a solid Democratic south—a south that is always expected to go Democratic, just the way that Maine once went for Gov. Kent, declares the Baltimore American. There have been in recent years encouraging signs in some of the southern states of a strong tendency to swing loose from the dead issues and to line up politically with regard to living issues. The progressive new south, with its millions of cotton spinners and its scores of blast furnaces, is in its material interests, just as much dependent for continuous prosperity upon these policies to which the Republican party has stood and will continue to stand, as is either Pennsylvania or New England. No section of the country has made a more impressive progress during the past ten years than these states generally classified as "the Solid South." Neither cotton mills nor blast furnaces would have sprung into existence under a free-trade policy.

The Wisdom of Bryan.

When, in 1896 and 1900, Bryan's policy, if it had succeeded, would have placed the silver trust in virtual control of the government, he was preaching the doctrine of the rule of the people. In those two canvasses, he in substance declared, in his platform and on the stump, that 50 cents was 100 cents. By endeavoring to force the people of the country to accept half a dollar where a whole dollar was due to them, he showed his devotion to the principle that each individual is entitled to the reward of his labor. He went up and down the highways and byways of the country preaching his political hypocrisy and denouncing everybody who stood for the elemental demands of honesty by the government in meeting its obligations, and in paying the laborer dollars worth 100 cents, as "enemies of the human race."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

So Col. Bryan detaches himself from "The Commoner" for a season. That sprightly sheet will, however, still be "The Commoner"—which is more agreeable than to say it will be commoner still.

Mr. Bryan's Delusion.

Mr. Bryan seems to think that the common people have been saving their money for the purpose of tossing it into a campaign fund.—Chicago News.

SAME OLD FLUBDUE

NOTHING NEW IN BRYAN'S "ACCEPTANCE" SPEECH.

Implacable Opposition to the Republican Party All That is Shown—Glittering Promises That He Cannot Fulfill.

Perhaps repeated demonstrations of Mr. Bryan's highly militant sort of patriotism and sense of the proprieties should have prepared us for a "speech of acceptance" that confined itself almost wholly to an assault upon congress, the Republican platform and Mr. Taft's "speech of acceptance." There is the inevitable touch of the flubdub in the preface thus:

"Shall the people control their own government and use that government for the protection of their rights and for the promotion of their welfare?"

By all means! If we Americans are not doing that now and Mr. Bryan can secure it, we, Republicans and Democrats, will be very much obliged to him. And this:

"Or shall the representatives of predatory wealth prey upon a defenseless public, while the offenders secure immunity from subservient officials whom they raise to power by unscrupulous means?"

Whom does he mean? A "speech of acceptance" so frankly and courageously accusative should at least be proportionately specific. Mr. Bryan is also out of all patience with the Republican party for failure to secure tariff reform:

"The influence of the manufacturers who for 25 years contributed to the Republican campaign fund, has been sufficient to prevent tariff reform."

Mr. Bryan will fix all that—fix it in spite of history which demonstrates that when the Democratic party, in the only two years of the last 48 years in which it was in a position to enact laws attempted a revision of the tariff, such a hopeless mess of it was made and the party was so disrupted thereby that President Cleveland refused to sign the bill and bitterly talked of party perjury. Yet Mr. Bryan is going to do more than Roosevelt has done, going to do it with a Republican senate, probably a Republican house and a hostile wing of the disrupted Democracy. Clearly Mr. Bryan is counting too confidently on "harmony."

Four years ago the Democratic party found the Republican administration too radical. Today the trouble with the Republican administration, in the opinion of Mr. Bryan, is that it isn't half radical and drastic enough. In short, Mr. Bryan's "speech of acceptance" is based upon the same sound Jeffersonian principles as his platform—sweeping and implacable opposition to the Republican party—and that is about all it amounts to, when you have properly discounted his generalities and specious promises.

Ignored by Bryan.

It pains us to observe that Mr. Bryan is not quite fair to the Republican party. Why has there been no anti-trust legislation? he asks; why no railroad legislation? The Republican senate and the Republican house of representatives, he pretends, have been unmoved by the appeals of the president and the entreaties of the interstate commerce commission. Yet the Hepburn act, a very important and far-reaching law, authorizing the fixing of rates and the restraint of abuses, the Elkins act, and the act denying immunity to the witness stand to corporations constitute a considerable body of remedial legislation. Mr. Bryan knows this very well. Furthermore, it does not lie in Mr. Bryan's mouth to reproach the Republican party for failure to revise the tariff. He made two unsuccessful campaigns upon trumpet issues of his own, practically ignoring the tariff.—N. Y. Times.

Mr. Taft's Task.

The western country is impregnated with the ideas which have been so much stimulated by Mr. Roosevelt in his second administration and which Mr. Bryan in the Democratic party has so long represented. This is not surprising. In Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa and other prairie states, the population of the early '90s came mainly from the Republican party, and, as a Republican president, Mr. Roosevelt has sanctified populism's germinal idea. The west of today is a populist west, whether it sides with the Republican or Democratic candidate; and Mr. Taft's peculiar task is to hold it in alliance with the east, which constantly renews itself by contemplating his own conservative character. If any living Republican can succeed in this enterprise, it is he.

Mr. Kerr's Hard Job.

Mr. James Kerr of Pennsylvania has promised Mr. Bryan to raise $100,000 in that state for the Democratic cause. As Mr. Bryan will not accept a dollar from corporations or from men interested in them, it looks as if Mr. Kerr had taken a pretty heavy summer job. Incidentally, he will get nothing from Col. Biggley.

A Somewhat Poor Prophet.

Henry Watterson predicts Bryan's election by a "grand swell" like that which carried Cleveland to victory. Henry has the enthusiasm of a new recruit. It will be a grand swell if his prophecies have had a smaller percentage of verification than those of the long-distance weather prognosticators.

"ME AND JACK."

(After a Well-Known Print.)

OUTLOOK IS GOOD

MIDDLE WEST STATES ARE SAFELY REPUBLICAN.

With Crop Prospects Fine and Business Improving the People are Enthusiastic for the Safe Ticket.

One of the common statements made nowadays is that the result of the election and the coming of good times will both depend to a very large extent upon the conditions in the states just beyond the Middle West. The Boston Transcript is publishing a most interesting series of letters from the centers of the country containing answers to questions about crops, business and the political outlook. These come not from the usual political prophets, but from banks, merchants, manufacturers and other representative authorities. They are from conservative men, who express themselves in moderate language. The latest installment of these replies covers the prairie states—Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota and the Dakotas.

From these reports and opinions we get cheer for the future. Kansas has splendid crops in parts, fair crops in parts and better than average crops on the whole and better than in 1907. The prospects for improvement in business are good. All the advice is to the effect that Taft will carry the state by a big majority.

Nebraska seems to be in fine shape. "Our crop outlook is the very best and if nothing unforeseen happens we shall have a bumper year," says the report from Omaha, and practically every business center sends news of a bumper crop and of improvement in trade. All the letters say Taft will carry the state.

Excessive rains have drowned out some of the corn of Iowa, but otherwise the state is in superb condition. Some sections report bumper crops, while others are less enthusiastic. Crop prospects are ahead of 1907. Better business is expected, and Taft will carry the state by a very big majority.

This report sums up the score of letters from Minnesota and the two Dakotas: "Fall conditions and crop prospects were never better." The writer within the last two or three weeks has been in the states of North and South Dakota, as well as Minnesota, and in all three of our states the people are very optimistic regarding conditions and have just cause for being so. From all appearances there should be large crops in all these states this year.

Crops better than in 1907, business improving and Taft in the lead—this is the message which the prairie states send to the country.—Baltimore American.

1896-1906.

W. J. Bryan was nominated in 1896 as an extreme radical and beaten. Four years later he was again nominated, but was not quite so extreme as in 1896, and again he was beaten. In 1906 he is nominated for the third time on a platform called by the mystifying name of "conservative radical," and though he secures the support of such conservatives as Thomas M. Osborne, he loses the support of such radicals as Thomas E. Watson and W. R. Hearst. The inclinations of Mr. Bryan toward "conservatism" seem to have kept pace with his growth in flesh and worldly goods. It is an interesting study. With a clear million and himself weighing 300 pounds, would Mr. Bryan be a safe and sane Democrat?—New York Evening Sun.

Perhaps it is a mere coincidence that the number of The Commoner in which Mr. Bryan announces that he has turned it over to be run by others, during the campaign contains a poem entitled "Lonely," which begins thus: "O, but it's dull and lonesome, and the house is strangely still."

CAN MR. CONNORS DELIVER?

"Finky" Promises New York State to Mr. Bryan, but—

Answers William J.—alias "Finky"—Connors, august though disgraced state chairman of the Democracy in New York:

"There is no question about New York state which will give pluralities of anywhere from 75,000 to 100,000 for Bryan."

How grossly yet subtly deceptive are more physical appearances! The frowns and the tightly-shut lips which, on the part of some characterized the 80 some minutes of Bryan cheering in Denver were not significant. The fact that "Finky" Connors himself sat there lukewarm of brow as Charon and silent as the sphinx; the fact that he glared into silence any impressionable New York delegate that showed symptoms of joining the chorus; the fact that New York was one of the six chilling states sternly to repress the adoration of Bryan and to show indifference, even disdain, of the Peerless One all throughout the delirious hour and something—all these phenomena mean, then, merely that "Finky" Connors is unimpressive and at the bottom of that within him which corresponds to a heart he loves Mr. Bryan dearly. At least we shall see if all the New York Democracy is possessed of the same power of utilitarian love and repression.

NOT SAFE IN BRYAN'S HANDS.

Next President Must Reorganize the Supreme Court.

Harper's Weekly points out that the most serious and important work of the next president will be the virtual reorganization of the supreme court. Four justices will have passed the retiring age when Taft or Bryan goes to the White House—Chief Justice Fuller, 75; Justice Harlan, 75; Justice Brewer, 71; and Justice Peckham, 70 in November. It is pretty well understood why the chief justice and Justice Harlan have not availed themselves of their privilege to retire; they have regarded it as a duty to remain on the bench so long as the country had a president more than likely to name as their successors men in sympathy with new and revolutionary methods of "interpreting" the constitution and the laws. Quite likely Justice Brewer, perhaps the strictest constructionist, as he is probably our ablest jurist, has been influenced by the same consideration.

But it is too much to expect or ask that these patriotic men remain at the post of duty for another four years; so it is altogether probable that the next president will have the naming of four or even five, an actual majority of our supreme court. What kind of men would Bryan appoint? His record and his words leave no room for doubt.

Debt to Compens.

We are glad to be able to agree occasionally with Comrade Debs, presidential candidate of the Socialist party.

In his spirited challenge to Mr. Compers to a debate on the Democratic injunction plank, Comrade Debs refers contemptuously to that "various" warped bit of lumber as "wandering" and "simply a bait to catch the unions."

Judge Taft, who is a pretty fair lawyer, has confessed his inability to unravel this delphic plank of Mr. Bryan's, which is ambiguously worded to catch two different sets of voters. Like the ingenious dork's con trap, it is set "for to catch 'em a-comin' and agoin'."

This is a great year for all kinds of bait for political gudgeons. But Gudgeons is no gudgeon; and we expect he will decline to bite at the bait dangled before him by Comrade Debs, who needs a little campaign advertisement in his business.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Bitten In Mouth by a Dog.

Joe Walker, a small boy of Marion who is here on a visit to his cousin, Master John Griffin, happened to quite a peculiar as well as a most painful misfortune one day last week. A number of boys were playing with a pet dog belonging to Bentley Major, and young Walker was told that he could not blow his breath in the dog's face. Without knowing the danger, the boy at once blew into the dog's face, and the dog immediately sprang at him, catching him by both lips. The dog's teeth cut through the upper lip, and left a very ugly and painful wound. It will be some time before the wound is entirely healed, though there is nothing serious about it. —Caldiz Record

Charges Against Smith Contained In Affidavit of Sanford Hall.

Edyville, Ky., Aug. 18.—I have never made the statement in been the authority for the statement that either Judge Cook or Common wealth's Attorney Smith had taken the night riders oath or was the member of such a band, said County Attorney Walter Orme, of Lyon county, when asked regarding the declaration of Judge Cook in his charge to the grand jury yesterday that two Lyon county officials had circulated the report that he had Mr. Smith were night riders.

Both of us have probably spoken of the affidavits of Sanford Hall and Tom Stevens, made in Hopkinsville, in which it is stated Henry Smith, when approached by Hall, responded to the night rider signs and passwords and talked of the organization. The parties giving the affidavits also state that night rider leaders had informed members in their meetings that there was nothing to fear from the Circuit Court. Those affidavits are in existence.

One man Sunday morning had the courage to act upon the advice, but he sneaked in and kept a back seat. Mr. Rushing still thinks that it would be sensible for the men to come to church without a coat and he will continue to advocate the idea and give the invitation during the summer months.
